

SA FEMALE RATINGS ANALYSIS – MARCH 2026

Heavy Weight

1. No Changes

Cruiser Weight

1. No Changes

Light Heavy Weight

1. No changes

Super Middle Weight

1. Mapule Ngubane the current SA middleweight champ enters at number 1 after defeating the SA supermiddle Champ Wendy Gcadu.

Middle Weight

1. Nolwazi Myingwa enters the ratings

Junior Middleweight

1. Nobengazi Booth won the SA junior middleweight tittle
2. Noxolo Mkhasibe enters the ratings as he requested to be moved from Super Middleweight
3. Alima Nkosi moved to number

Welter Weight

1. No movement

Junior Welterweight

1. No Changes

Light Weight

1. Azasakhe Jamani moved to number 1 after impressive win against an international opponent

Junior Lightweight

1.No changes

Featherweight

1. No changes.

Junior Featherweight

1. Asandiswa Mxokwana enters at number 5 after winning SA Junior Featherweight whilst Misiwe Ndlovu enters at number 6

Bantam weight

1.Lethokuhle Sibisi enters at number 3 after her consistence performance and Thema Zuma dropped to number 4

Junior Bantam Weight

1. Libra Mtarina moved up to number 2 because of her consistent performance

Flyweight

1. Keabetswe Mathane moved up to number after her good performances

Junior Flyweight

1. No changes.

Mini flyweight

1.No Changes

March has been great to female boxers. BSA begins to see noticeable changes in the female ratings. Promoters are taking seriously and promoting many tournaments that involve females.

Report prepared by the Ratings Committee led by Interim Chairperson Mr Xolile Dike

Working with Committee Members Mr Silence Mabuza and Nika Kumalo and Mr Andre de Vries